

In the interest of safety and fair treatment to all people, the deaf and hard of hearing should not be restricted in any way from having the same quality and availability of communication as a hearing person. Equipment manufacturers should not be allowed to restrict service to other providers!